

WINDY HILL FARM, INC.

NURSERY • ORCHARD • GARDENSHOP

Internship Seasonal

Windy Hill Farm is accepting applications for seasonal internships from Spring 2026. The nursery is located in Western Massachusetts in Southern Berkshire County.

Descriptions:

We have internships available in various department at Windy Hill Farm. Including Garden Center, Perennial Department, Orchard and Nursery Department and Landscaping Department.

1. Garden Center including set up of a wide array of annuals, perennials, trees and shrubs, gardening soil, amendment and other products, PYO fruit operation.
2. Perennial Department including potting up and growing of various bare root perennials and plug starters. Spacing and display of finished cultural practices such as pruning, fertilization, insect and disease identification and control.
3. Orchard and Nursery Department including pruning, weeding, insect and disease identification on orchard small fruit crops, various ornamental trees and shrubs. Proper digging, balling and harvesting from our field grown nursery stock, containerizing ornamental potting and growing bareroot trees, shrubs, fruit trees and small fruits.
4. Landscaping Department including design, principals, installation of residential landscapes where you would be learning proper plant selections, installation practices, proper soil amendments to successfully establish plants in the landscape.

Contact us:

Email your letter of interest and resume to Office@windyhillfarminc.com or apply in person at Windy Hill Farm.